Home Rule Ranks Are Working

President Notley of the Home Rule party called the first session of the executive committee of that body yes-terday morning at 10 o'clock. Letters from the presidents of the various pre-cinct clubs throughout the Territory were received and read. Mr. Notley is rejoicing over the reports submittent the meeting. He says that the Home Rulers have every reason to be noon, hopeful at the coming campaign, as the letters received showed that a large number of the old Home Rulers are returning to the ranks.

Asked as to the reason for this, he said. "The adverse stand the Supervisors of Hawaii have taken to Sheriff

Keolanui is causing the revival of the party on the Island of Hawaii. "On Kauai the Kanealii episode is doing the work. Strange to say, how-ever, Maui is coming forth also as the other Islands—strange, in that no particular incident has occurred there, as on Hawaii and Kauaf."

He mentioned, particularly, the district of Kennac, particularly, the dis-trict of Kennac, not far from Walluku, which has about sixty voters. "In 1904," said Mr. Notley, "this proved to be a strong Democratic section, but today, according to report," very few acted besides the reading of the let-ters, Messrs. Notley and Poepoe were not reluctant to speak on other matters which have not been reached. When asked if they would put up a candidate for Delegate to Congress if Prince Kuhio should receive a renomi Prince Kuhio should receive a renomination from the Republican party, Mr. Poepoe said: "Personally, as a private individual, I would support any action to have the Home Rule party endorse aim, but as a party man I would not."

Asked as to whether or no the Home Rulers would support Cupid were he to run independently, if rejected by the Republicans, he said he thought they would. "In that event," he said, says that Cupid has established a good record, and as far as he knows that record will avail him should he run on an independent ticket, Mr. Notley took a slightly different view from this. He said that he would not entertain any idea of endorsing Cupid were he renominated by the Republican party. "Not long ago," said Notley. "I was approached by some Republicans who seemed to be in favor of Cupid's renomination and ask you ground seemed to be in favor of Cupid's renomination and ask you ground seemed to be in favor of Cupid's renomination and ask you ground seemed to be in favor of Cupid's renomination and ask you ground seemed to be in favor of Cupid's renomination and ask your ground seemed to be in favor of Cupid's renomination and ask your ground seemed to be in favor of Cupid's renomination and ask your ground seemed to be in favor of Cupid's renomination and ask your ground seemed to be in favor of Cupid's renomination and ask your ground seemed to be in favor of the company of the c vor of Cupid's renomination, and ask-ed if I would support Cupid should he be put up by them if he be rejected at the general convention. As yet I have not given any answer, but I think, should that be the case, I would certainly see that the Home Rulers put a man in the field. He would then have every assurance of success, in so far as the Republican party would be divided. This matter of selecting a candidate for Congress will be brought up at some of the regular sessions of the executive committee. At present nothing has been done."
